

Gonzalo Araya

Senior Associate, London

Gonzalo Araya is a Senior Associate at RBB Economics based in London. He regularly works on merger analysis, abuse of dominance cases, and damage estimations. Of Chilean nationality, he has worked on several cases before competition authorities in Latin America.

Gonzalo has extensive experience in regulation and economic analysis in competition law. He served as Economic Coordinator at the FNE, overseeing competitive analysis in various industries such as telecommunications, airlines, and financial services, among others.

Additionally, he previously worked as an advisor at the Ministries of Transportation and Telecommunications, as well as the Ministry of Finance of Chile. He also worked as an Associate Economist at the World Bank in Washington D.C., United States.

Gonzalo has taught microeconomics and political economy at the University of Chile and Adolfo Ibañez University. He holds a Master's in Economics of Markets and Organizations (MSc) from the University of Toulouse, France, and a Master's in Economics (M.E.) from the University of Chile.

London
199 Bishopsgate
London
EC2M 3TY
United Kingdom
T +44 20 7421 2410
E gonzalo.araya@rbbecon.com

rbbecon.com