

Link Airways' Canberra to Coffs Harbour seasonal flights return this spring

21 August 2025

Canberra Airport and Link Airways are pleased to announce that direct seasonal flights between Canberra and Coffs Harbour will recommence from 18 September 2025.

With prices starting at just $299 one way, the popular service will operate twice weekly and run through to the end of January 2026, providing Canberrans with a convenient escape to the beautiful Mid North Coast during the spring and summer months.

Canberra Airport's Head of Aviation, Michael Thomson, welcomed the return of the route.

"We're delighted to see Link Airways bringing back this well-loved seasonal connection. Coffs Harbour's beaches, national parks, and relaxed coastal lifestyle make it a favourite for holidaymakers and this direct service makes getting there easier than ever." Mr Thomson said.

The service also offers opportunities for Coffs Coast locals to discover Canberra and the capital region's cultural attractions, world-class events, and vibrant food scene.

Link Airways Manager of Network Strategy, Jeff Boyd, said the airline was pleased to return to the Canberra–Coffs Harbour route.

"This route continues to demonstrate strong demand, and we're proud to offer travellers a reliable and convenient way to fly direct," Mr Boyd said.

ACT Chief Minister, Andrew Barr welcomed the announcement by Canberra Airport and Link Airways to reconnect Canberra and Coffs Harbour.

"This service makes it easier for the communities of the Coffs Coast to travel to Canberra this Spring and is perfectly timed for the start of Floriade. The new flights will further support local business and create more local jobs in our growing tourism industry," said the Chief Minister.

Link Airways, a Canberra-based carrier, operates services across five states and territories to 15 destinations. The airline continues to strengthen regional connectivity and provide essential links for both business and leisure travellers.

Flights are available for booking now at www.linkairways.com.