DESCRIPTION

Launched in 2014, the 65m/ 214ft Custom luxury yacht 'LAMIMA' is a stunning vessel constructed using traditional methods by local boatbuilders on the Indonesian island of Sulawesi. Designed as a classic Phinisi motor-sailer yacht, LAMIMA showcases the craftsmanship of Pak Haji Baso and features exterior design by Spanish designer Marcelo Penna.

LAMIMA is renowned for providing unparalleled comfort and luxury on board, making it one of the top choices for crewed yacht charter vacations. With a skilled and attentive crew, as well as an impressive array of diving equipment and water toys, the yacht is perfectly suited to exploring the cruising grounds of South East Asia.

The yacht's exteriors were meticulously designed to reflect its Indonesian heritage. Built using traditional Indonesian methods, LAMIMA stands as the world's largest wooden sailing yacht. Its exterior features a sweeping bow, sleek bowsprit, and graceful white sails, preserving its striking profile. Spanish yacht designer Marcelo Penna lent his expertise to create a two-masted vessel that seamlessly combines classic yacht design with modern amenities and advanced maritime technology.

Step inside LAMIMA, and you'll be welcomed by soothing and inviting interiors. Bleached oak surfaces, plush materials, bespoke fittings, and discreet lighting panels create an atmosphere of calm throughout the yacht. The main salon boasts a spacious, open-plan layout, with a central bar adorned with backlit wall panels and stools for guests to relax and enjoy a drink. The salon is complemented by sofa seating, a formal dining area, and a wall-mounted television integrated into the space. Small vases and ornaments add depth and dimension to the surroundings.

LAMIMA can accommodate up to fourteen guests in seven well-appointed cabins. Each suite embodies a theme of tranquility and features Oriental-style furnishings that harmonize with the yacht's charter destinations. The configuration includes a master suite, four double twin suites, and two twin suites, offering flexibility to suit different types of yacht charter vacations. The guest accommodation is primarily located on the main deck, while the owner's suite stands out with its spaciousness, private entrance onto the exterior deck, large wooden beams framing the bed, and luxurious amenities such as a wall-mounted television and ample wardrobe space.
